

Elder Qualifications Test

(2nd Edition)
John Hopler

An evaluation designed to help determine a man's maturity, measured by the standards set forth in Titus 1:6-9 and 1 Timothy 3:2-7.

How To Use This Test

This is a tool to help discern whether (or how closely) a man is qualified to be an elder. For any man who is seriously being considered for appointment, the test should be taken by:

- The man himself.
- All the elders (locally and regionally) who know him.
- His wife (or roommate).
- Other leaders who are close to him.

For those aspiring to leadership but not close to being appointed, the test should be taken by:

- The man himself.
- The elder who knows him best.
- His wife (or roommate).

After this test is taken, the results should be discussed by the leadership and shared with the man whose life is being scrutinized. After taking the test, you will read on page 16 further instructions on how to use the results.

Test Questions and Qualifications Descriptions

Person being evaluated:

Person who is doing evaluation:

If the answer to the question is 'Yes', put a '1' in the space provided. If the answer is 'No', put an '0' in the space provided. If the question does not apply (e.g., a question as to children and the person has none), then record a '1'. Once you have filled in your answers, add the four together and insert that number on the Summary Sheet at the end of the test.

How To Evaluate The Test Results

1. First and foremost, understand that this is only a tool to help you evaluate if a man is qualified to be an elder. Reliance on the Holy Spirit and much prayer is needed when considering a man's qualifications.
2. The following is a scale to determine a man's qualifications based on the number in the "Total" column on the answer sheet:
0: Not qualified

1-2: Probably not qualified

3: Perhaps qualified

4: Qualified

3. The best way for the man being considered to use the results of this test is to take the one area of qualification in which there was the lowest rating and to devote himself to growing in that one area.
